IMPORTANT INFORMATION – Bell Potter Third Party Authority Policy

Bell Potter Securities Limited policy is that for individual or joint accounts acceptable third parties can only be an immediate family member, Power of Attorney, person licensed to give advice or an authorised representative of such person - this cannot be a Bell Potter Representative. For Company accounts acceptable third parties can only be nominated officers/employees.

For nominated employees or Power of Attorney appointments we also require a minute from the company, signed by the director(s) authorising delegation of power.

Authorised Persons must provide verification of identity in accordance with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing (AML/CTF) regulations (Please complete an Agents of Clients form).
